

Appendix A

Summary of Teacher Recruitment Activity 2004 - 2005

NQT Recruitment 2005 (As at 25 May 2005)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Primary pool NQTs appointed to schools – 22</li> <li>• Details on secondary, special and music service appointments will be available by the end of the September 2005</li> </ul>
NQT Recruitment 2004	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Primary pool NQTs appointed to schools – 49</li> <li>• Primary NQTs direct appointments by schools – 48</li> <li>• Total primary NQTs – 97</li> <li>• Secondary NQTs appointed to schools - 128</li> </ul>
Secondary Trained Teacher Register – NQTs - 2005	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Details of 187 trainee teachers contained within STTR</li> <li>• Analysis of appointments to East Sussex schools will be available by September 2005</li> </ul>
Secondary Trained Teacher Register – NQTs - 2004	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Details of 250 trainee teachers contained within STTR</li> <li>• 41 trainee teachers were appointed to East Sussex schools – 32 % of the total intake of NQTs</li> <li>• 22 out of 24 secondary schools benefited from this initiative</li> </ul>
Graduate Teacher Programme (GTP) Primary 2004/05	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 24 trainee teachers are predicted to be awarded Qualified Teacher Status in July 2005</li> <li>• As at 25 May 2005 – 12 potential NQTs from the cohort have so far been offered posts in East Sussex schools</li> <li>• A full analysis of the appointment process will be available by September 2005</li> </ul>
Graduate Teacher Programme (GTP) Primary 2003/04	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 22 trainee teachers were awarded Qualified Teacher Status (QTS)</li> <li>• 10 NQTs from the cohort were appointed direct to their training schools in East Sussex</li> <li>• 8 NQTs from the cohort were appointed to other primary schools in East Sussex</li> <li>• 4 NQTs left the LEA</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>•</li> </ul>